Niagara Falls Excursions.

A Few Facts.

A large percentage of the people of Illinois, Indiana and Ohio know the great attractions at Niagara Falls, a number visit the Falls annually. It is not strange, therefore, that in arranging special excursions the various routes strive to excel in accommodations.

The Clover Leaf (T. St. L. & K. C. R. R.) special excursion train of August 5th will consist of first class coaches (nearly new) Pullman Wagner Sleepers (vestibuled) and popular Clover Leaf Reclining Chair Cars. The route will be via the reliable Clover Leaf to Toledo; thence the double track Lake Shore along the Southern Shore of Lake Erie, through Sandusky, Cleveland, Erie, Dunkirk and other popular cities to Buffalo and the four track New York Central to Niagara Falls, arriving there at a convenient hour Tuesday morning, Aug. 6th.

Make early application for sleeping berths or chair car seats. Aug. 6

Niagara Falls Excursion

Via Toledo, Cleveland and Buffalo.

The Annual Niagara Falls Excursion will leave Clover Leaf (T. St. L. & K. C. R. R.) Stations, Toledo, Ill., East, on Monday, August 5th. Special train will start from Toledo, 9:45 a. m. and Stations east of Toledo to Frankfort on schedule of Day Express, No. 4. East of Frankfort special train will leave stations earlier than schedule of No. 4. For complete schedule see large bills. Through Coaches, Reclining Chair Cars and the entire train will be lighted by electric gas. Seats in Chair Cars and berths in Sleepers will be extra, according to distance. The route beyond Toledo is via Lake Shore and New York Central.

For further particulars call on nearest agent, Clover Leaf Route, or write C. C. Jenkins, Gen. Pass. Agt., Toledo, Ohio.

A father talking to his careless daughter said: "I want to speak to you of your mother. It may be that you have noticed a careworn look upon her face. Of course it has not been brought there by any act of yours, still it is your duty to chase it away. I want you to get up to-morrow morning and get breakfast. When your mother comes and begins to express her surprise, go right up to her and kiss her on the mouth. You can't imagine how it will brighten up her dear face. Besides, you owe her a kiss or two; away back, when you were a little girl, she kissed you when no one else was tempted by your fever-tainted breath and swollen face. You were not so attractive then as you are now. Through years of childish sunshine and shadows she was always ready to cure, by the magic of a mother's kiss, the little, dirty chubby hands whenever they were injured in those first skirmishes with the rough old world."

DIED.

Emma Caldwell, aged 11 years, 7 months and 27 days. She was the eldest daughter of George and Minnie Caldwell, and had been a sufferer from spinal trouble for nearly a year. Funeral services were conducted Sunday at St. Rose de Lima church.

IN MEMORIAM.

The rose must blight, and droop, and die,
The flowers must fade away—
Some perish in their fullest bloom,
Some in the bud decay.

And thus it is with human life,
We murmur not at death,
When on the old and gray-haired man
He breathes his blighting breath.

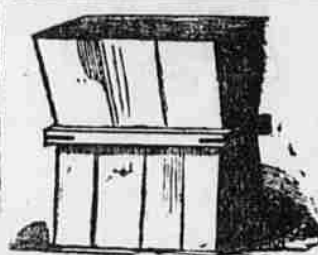

But when the young, the darling child,
He touches with his dart,
We bow the knee but feel the blow
Fall heavy on the heart.

Our darling rose to brighter life,
She's done with all life's woes—
But oh! the cloud upon our hearts
None like her mother knows.

CARD OF THANKS.

We to return thanks to our Perrysburg and Lima City friends for their kindness and sympathy shown us during the illness and death of our daughter Emma.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Caldwell

Have You Had Your Vacation?

If you have not, you should read what Governor McKinley, Chief Dunn, Joe Jefferson, Rev. Thomas Dixon, Dr. Cyrus W. Edison, and Camille d'Arville say about the best way to enjoy an outing, in "The Question of Vacations from Different Standpoints," published in Demorest Family Magazine for August, and profit by their experience. "Apropos to the same topic, 'A Queen of the Coast,' gives a most vivid description of that popular resort Atlantic City, and to those who can't get away the illustrations and descriptive letterpress will be almost equal to a trip there. The 'silent steed,' the favorite one this year, is treated both humorously and practically in two profusely illustrated articles, 'My First Experience With a Bicycle.' Published for $2 a year by the Demorest Publishing Co., 110 Fifth Avenue, New York.

The Maumee Club house, of which Fred Volk is proprietor, located midway between Maumee and Miami is one of the most commodious and complete summer resorts in the state.
